

MINUTES OF APRIL 18th, 1921.

The Board of Public Works met at the office of the Board of Public Works in Baltimore, Union Trust Building, Monday, April 18th, at 3:30 o'clock, p. m.

Present:

Albert C. Ritchie, Governor,
E. Brooke Lee, Comptroller,
John M. Dennis, Treasurer.

The Board approved the minutes of the meeting of April 15th.

Messrs. Smith and May, Architects, and Joseph N. Ulman, Thomas V. Wedge, Clarence K. Bowie, Mrs. Max Ways and Mrs. J. W. Putts, members of the Board of Managers of the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls, appeared before the Board to submit plans and specifications for the building of a Receiving Cottage on the Montrose Farm property purchased by the Institution for its future home. After a lengthy consideration of the plans to eventually locate the Institution on the Montrose Farm, with modern facilities, it was decided to authorize the architects to ask for bids on the plans for the construction of the Receiving Cottage, and to take the matter up further after the bids had been submitted.

The Secretary reported that the sum of One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Forty-four Dollars and Five ($1,944.05) Cents had been expended out of the funds allotted to the Maryland Industrial Training School for Girls under the provisions of Chapter 727 of the Acts of 1920, said $1,944.05 representing amounts of bills approved by Mr. Thomas V.
